IN A FEW WORDS

Dear HVTC,

Three months to go for our first swim in Williams Lake on Monday, May 1st!! How are those workouts coming along? Are you going long this year or is it quality in 2006? Regardless, it'll be a fantastic season for you, I'm sure. I really look forward to seeing all of you too for the annual HVTC registration/packet pick-up on Wednesday, April 26th; it'll be full of wonderful surprises! Meanwhile, keep that caloric intake under the radar. See ya out there!

Sincerely,

Mark H. Wilson-Triathlon Coach

Featured Athlete: Bill Norton

By Mark H. Wilson

Have you ever known people who, no matter what they do, always seem to live an extremely blessed life? Is it their ability to live in the moment? Is it some sort of natural commitment given at birth that attracts wonderful life experiences to them like a magnet? Or maybe it's a good old, down-home up-bringin' that's the secret?! No matter, Bill Norton has been livin'-it-up for the past 49 years as a bachelor and for his 50th year on the planet he received some life-changing "surprises" that he's absolutely thrilled about. In fact, he literally couldn't be happier! Okay, okay...let's get to it!

Bill is the definition of a hometown boy; a real nice guy. He was born and raised in Wurtsboro, NY on Masten Lake. He's still there and enjoys all the beauty the tiny valley has to offer. Bill attended Monticello High School and his college education consisted of a smorgasbord of Community Colleges; Orange, Ulster and Sullivan. It paid off though, earning him two degrees in land surveying. Bill played baseball in college and couldn't get enough skiing, either. Honestly, he'd rather be skiing on a perfect powder run than anything in the world; downhill skiing is truly his passion. In addition, he's been a level 3 instructor with the PSIA for 25 years and has had the pleasure to experience the best ski areas in the world. His favorites are Alta, Utah; Taos, New Mexico; Mt. Blanc in the Alps and Mad River Glen in Vermont. Bill also enjoys water skiing and windsurfing.

Volume VI, Issue No. 57 February 2006

For the first half of his life Bill was a bachelor. His motto was “No Wife, No Kids, No Pets.” Then all hell broke loose; he fell madly in love with his present wife Jean, is raising two teenage stepchildren, along with a dog, a cat, a bird...and to top it all off Jean blessed him with a son of his own. Luke is two years old. Wow, now that’s breaking the frickin’ rules!! He’s on cloud nine. The whole bunch lives on Masten Lake in Wurtsboro.

Bill created his own business of twenty-four years known as Mercurio-Norton-Tarolli, Land Surveying–Engineering, P.C. located in Pine Bush, NY. Others tell him he doesn’t need to train as much as most due to the amount of hiking and backpacking involved with his work. Bill loves it!! Because of the time constraints, he considers himself a part-time triathlete at best although he thrives on the principle of maximum efficiency and minimum effort. He claims to enjoy watching his wife’s triathlon development, but he is an awesome triathlete in his own rite.

Bill has been a successful runner since 1980 and did his first triathlon in 1985 at Harriman State Park. His favorite multi-sport event of all time was the Kaaterskill Spring Rush. The race consisted of an 18 mile run, a 60 mile bike, a canoe portage ending with a canoe race. According to Bill, it was a blast! He partnered this race with another talented local runner George Shurter for ten years. They were the overall winners twice; both times they were each over forty.

The natural athletic gifts Bill has been given are plentiful. However, Bill is the first to acknowledge he’s never really explored his potential. Since he practically wins his age-group in every race he enters he kinda knows he doesn’t need to push himself too much to get the job done. For instance, in 2005 Bill placed first in his age group at the Pine Hill Arms Triathlon, Highland Triathlon and West Point Triathlon. In addition, he placed second in the M50-54 at the Trooper Biathlon and S.O.S. He trains just enough to get the results he wants and not an ounce more; unfortunately, it doesn’t always workout as planned. It backfired at the brutal Escarpment Trail Run, the sweltering Tupper Lake Half-Ironman and the S.O.S, as well. His first conclusion was; “I’m gettin’ old!” It happens.

Bill intends to place first in his age group in every race he enters for 2006. It’s a very reasonable goal especially if he commits to the training. No worries; he’ll probably get even busier with his company and find himself “going long” in the woods, as usual. And if his wife Jean qualifies for Kona, you’ll find him at the beach windsurfing; reminiscing ‘bout the good ol’ days with the locals. Thanks, Bill!
