IN A FEW WORDS

Dear HVTC,

Remarkable, there's actually snow in the forecast this Wednesday evening, the last day of September; yikes!!! Well, I guess the Farmer's Almanac could be spot-on this winter; cool and snowy. No big deal, we're triathletes, "Snow? Yeah, we do that!" See ya out there.

Sincerely,
Mark H. Wilson
Professional Life & Triathlon Coach

HVTC Featured Athlete: Jim Stafford

By Mark H. Wilson

Do you know anyone who's so soft-spoken that you'd never even know their name unless you walked straight up to them and asked? Do you know anyone who's so selfless that they'd give practically everything to their family and expect little, if anything, in return? Do you know anyone who's like this and still crushes you in triathlon with the utmost humility and grace? Well, our Featured Athlete of the Month, Jim Stafford, epitomizes what it is to be a gentleman. Who's responsible? Let's find out.

Hudson Valley Triathlon Club

Volume VIII, Issue No. 100 September 2009

Jim was born in Patterson, New Jersey in 1964; his family moved within a year and they spent most of their time in central New York near Oneonta where Jim attended Unatego High School. He went to college at the Merchant Marine Academy and received a Bachelor of Science degree and an Unlimited Third Officers License. He spent the next 10 years at sea adventurously sailing as an Unlimited Master of Oceans. Then, he worked for the Federal Government in Washington, D.C. for a year and in 2002 moved to the Hudson Valley.

In high school, Jim played baseball and soccer; and in college he played baseball until he started rowing in the spring of his sophomore year. Jim loved rowing; especially the competition and doing two-a-day training sessions. His team would hit the gym in addition to rowing in the river both morning and evening. They were very competitive and successful; they ended-up taking second place in Small College Nationals. Jim really misses that challenging team experience.

New Paltz has been Jim's home for the last four years and he simply loves all of the outdoor activities the area offers. Jim is also proud to state he's married to "the most supportive and wonderful woman imaginable." Jim's wife Nicole teaches in Newburgh and they have 6 children together...all living at home. They have three girls and three boys who range from 7 to almost 17. 'Nough said.

Jim stopped working for the U.S. Government in 2002; post-911 his father came to visit and offered him a job with Water Conditioning and Well Systems. Jim's father had been in the Hudson Valley with his own business for over 35 years and it seemed like a good fit offering Jim the flexibility needed for family obligations, etc. (not to mention triathlon training). Jim detested being cooped-up in an office four days a week and the work environment was less than favorable.

The first triathlon experience Jim had was with HVTC. Yes!!! Jim ran-into some guy at a race who happened to know a little about the club (application in hand) and invited him to join. Jim had heard from others that HVTC was not only very competitive but very supportive. Of course, it was a great experience and the rest is history; in fact, Jim's become one of the fastest members at the Summer Tri-Series and has already earned USAT Honorable Mention. Good work!

However, not everyone's tickled about Jim's triathloning! Jim's father thinks he is crazy; his Pop is very old school. "Why'd you be playing around wasting time when you could be makin' more money?!" Jim attempts to explain the balancing act, the benefits of exercise (mental and physical), etc, etc. but the Old Timer just doesn't get it. Jim can definitely see where he gets his stubbornness from. Thanks, Dad! The truth is, Jim is a well-rounded guy who enjoys playing with his children, exploring new areas with his wife, rowing on the Erg/competing online; and occasionally, he can be found fishing and working around the house.

Speaking of fishing; Jim was fished out of the East River once during a rowing experience. It should be mentioned that swimming is NOT his favorite part of the triathlon; it's just something he has to do prior to biking and running. In college, Jim was known to "dig too deep" with his oar and heavy traffic on the river one particular day caused large wakes; well, he dug too deep again and caused the boat to "fall off keel" and the oar came-back and knocked him clear-off the boat and into the water. Barely surviving and avoiding the whitefish the crew got him out with a launch. Yes, Jim ate humble pie that day; where's a wetsuit when you need one?!

Jim was inspired to participate in triathlon for many reasons. He had had multiple surgeries and was able to keep more mobility in his entire skeletal system by engaging in triathlon cross-training. Another by-product is that he feels better and spends more quality time with his family. Jim also likes triathlon because of the camaraderie, "The caliber of people I have met in HVTC far exceeds those I have met in all of my travels around the country. HVTC-ers genuinely appear to want to help despite the obvious competitive nature of the sport." In addition, triathlon offers him some serious respite and time-off from living with 6 kids. It also allows him to eat as much chocolate as he desires; his favorite...chocolate marshmallow Pin wheels. That's it, have at it!

The challenge is what intrigues Jim the most about triathlon; he's happy with his accomplishments, and seeks to improve upon his technique in both the swim and bike. He also enjoys racing the clock; going as fast as he can is a thrill, and to see the measurable gains, etc. Jim's recommended the sport to only a few people; for instance, his sister. She's an accomplished runner and the swimming aspect scares her; perfect, she'll fit right in!

Jim has raced well despite his newbie-ness (yes, it's a word!); he's completed the HVTC Summer Tri-Series, Columbia County Triathlon, Toughman and Rhode Island 70.3. He really wants to do an Ironman; although with all the kids he is very limited in hours each week for training. So, he's not sure if he's ready for the increased work load. If you can handle living like the Brady bunch, Ironman's gonna be easy. Thanks, Jim!
